

So Gone

Kay Cola

So gone over you
I've waited too muchBaby I know you need a plane
And I'mma hold you there
You better, better ask me
Every time that we go out
I promise daddy that you won't never need no one else
Cause I'm gonna give you something
You ain't never feltI show you that I want it
Baby I turn up
I really want it
I'mma work for it
The wait is so long
You got me so gone
The wait is so long
You got me so goneSo gone over you
Gone, gone
I'mma help you get it
Get the money, boy
You got to
It ain't no limits
Let's take advantage of your minuteI promise daddy that you won't never need no one else
Cause I'm gonna give you something
You ain't never feltI show you that I want it
Baby I turn up
I really want it
I'mma work for it
The wait is so long
You got me so gone
The wait is so long
You got me so goneSo gone over you
So gone over you
So gone over you
