

All I Want

Robbie Seay Band

all i want is my frustration to be replaced with signs of spring all i want is confirmation that you're gonna see me through this thing (chorus:)

all i want..all i want is you all i want is just a window to let me know there's light outside all i want is confirmation that what i'm feeling isn't right (chorus)

all i want is that you'd find me and i'd have nothing more to say all i want is pure reflection of the one who's standing right in front of me (chorus)
