

You Tell Me

Yesterdays Rising

break! you are indeed the one i do not look for, my everlasting moment ive wished for, has not come true. are you dying or is it the pain i endure, thats giving me that impression? are you sleeping or is it my eyes that are shut? my eyes are shut ... break! the pain ... is less reassuring, than to see you face, on a cold and rainy day. so sad, so sad, so sad ... more tears to my eyes (eyes). everything, falls down when i break, and everything falls down when i break.
