New Shoes

Juliet

I've got my best dress and new shoes
My best face and bells on for you tonight
A dangerous attraction was my first impression
Would you take me home tonight?And if I don't have you, I don't have nothin' at all
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothin' at all
To break my fallPlease, do take notice as I am delirious
High on the nonsense, oh, are you oblivious?
Hold on to let go, play yes to say no
Protest the protest but he never cameAnd if I don't have you, I don't have nothin' at all
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothin' at allI'll find my way home, not to worry 'bout me
I'll find my way home, spare your sympathyI've got my best dress and new shoes
A brave face and bells on for youAnd if I don't have you, I don't have nothin' at all
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothin' at all
And if I don't have you, I don't have nothin' at all
And if I don't need you, I don't need nothin' at all
