

So She

David Bowie

For the priceless man

Who suffers gloom

So slow

Eyes were stolen

For her

A sleeping sky

Takes the moon

So slow

I would slide away

Further out to sea

Further out to sea

So she

She saw me smile

Feeling like

I'd never been

She saw me smile

Feeling like I'd never been

In love

Feeling like I'd never been

The only one and all alone

The only one and all alone
