

Nose Over Tail

Alkaline Trio

Crack my head open on your kitchen floor
To prove to you that I have brains
Meanwhile tin men are led by little girls
Down golden roads that lead to nowhere
Fine time to fake a seizure
Feel your mouth on mine, you're saving me
Whatever happened to that silly dream you had?
I want to make it real, I'd love to rub your back
Like a plane crash that never hits the ground
I fall in love with you, I'm nose over tail for you
Your voice like the sound of sirens
To a house on fire, you're saving me
