Braid

dear diary
listen to me
how can i please without smoke rings and striptease?
one makes fun
two social for social forummeg: "i'd still like you if you weren't so drunk i'd still talk to you but when you hold that bottle close to your heart silence wants me more than you do" ash: "i'd still like you if you weren't so dumb i hope the reverse is true and do you want to be a part of apart i hope i do i hope you do too" you will losei need you blue tests true
green stays clean
red leaves
on a lucky streak
that just last week
i don't believe thati need you when fists fly through quiet are the cruel
we talked so smooth
as we sat and drew
and we looked so cool
like the kids we
hated in high schoolwho will lose?
