

Ain't Fit to Live Here

Graveyard

I got no friends
Only people that I know
They seems so nice to me
And I? Looking out the window
At the place I want to go
I thought if I stay here
My head will explode I ain't fit to live here
Among the people of my time
No I ain't fit for nothing
Just wanna leave the world behind
If I don't get my head straight
I'll never chase them here again
But if they try to push me
I won't make it here alive
Outside the rain is pouring
The time is passing by
I'm thinking of the passed weeks
But my memory is blind
Someone?
Then I never would've come
But why should I bother? I ain't fit to live here
Among the people of my time
No I ain't fit for nothing
Just wanna leave world behind
If I don't get my head straight
I'll never chase them here again
But if try to push me
I won't make it here alive
People ask me what is wrong,
I don't see what's right,
Can't get my thoughts together,
I'm still asking why,
Random days keep passing by,
Don't make ã» sense to me,
I'll stop myself from leaving,
'cause I know where it will lead,
I know where it will lead,
I know where it will lead,
Cause know where it will lead. Why? ghost

For me to? dead
Like the cat who caught the rabbit?I ain't fit to live here
Among the people of my time
No I ain't fit for nothing
Just wanna leave world behind
If I don't get my head straight
But if try to push me
I won't make it here alive
