The Cedar Room

Doves

Stars leave the morning, sleep clouds my view
Don't let them come 'round here and call to you
I didn't notice, it's a crime to few
I didn't notice, it's a crime to feel
And I tried to sleep alone but I couldn't do it
You could be sitting next to me and I wouldn't know it
If I told you, you was wrong, I don't remember saying
I don't remember saying, I don't remember saying
I'll be a shadow in the cedar room
And leave just a memory alone with you
I didn't see that, it's a call too soon
I couldn't see that, it's a call to you
And I tried to sleep alone but I couldn't do it
You could be sitting next to me and I wouldn't know it
If I told you, you was wrong I don't remember saying
I don't remember saying
And I tried to sleep alone but I couldn't do it
You could be sitting next to me and I wouldn't know it
If I told you, you was wrong, I don't remember saying
I don't remember saying, I don't remember saying
And I tried to sleep alone but I couldn't do it
You could be sitting next to me and I wouldn't know it
If I told you, you was wrong, I don't remember saying
I don't remember saying
And I tried to sleep alone but I couldn't do it
You could be sitting next to me and I wouldn't know it
If I told you, you was wrong, I don't remember saying
I don't remember saying
The cedar room
The cedar room
The cedar room
