Come On In

Brad Paisley

One, two
Got up this morning headed down the road
I saw this pilgrim with a heavy load
Were my eyes lying at what I'd seen?
Hello stranger, remember me
Hang your coat on that nail
Kick your shoes off, let them sail
I set my suitcase went down in the den
Welcome stranger, come on in
Come on in, come on in
It's so good to see you again
It don't matter where you've been
Welcome stranger, come on in
I'll make the coffee, I'll get the cream
Open up a bottle of old Jim Beam
We'll hoot and holler to your favorite song
Welcome stranger, welcome home
I sure did miss you, there's no doubt
The day's got longer after he checked out
The pain got stronger when it kicked in
Welcome stranger, come on in
Come on in, come on in
It's so good to see you again
It don't matter where you've been
Welcome stranger, come on in
It don't matter where you've been
Welcome stranger, come on in
Welcome stranger, come on in
