

Woo Woo

Biffy Clyro

I sank down to the gutter and moaned about all the people that had done me wrong
Pucker up here's a mouth and a half
You can't ignore it in the photograph
I want to change, I want to listen
My selfish ways have reached their limit
Are we alive or are we finished?
Let's move along and not diminish
I removed all my fingers and toes
Don't want to hold anything too close
I slid down all the columns at hand
That's not as glam as you think it sounds
I will love you for the rest of my life
Can you love me 'til the end of time?
So we can start the journey home
We'll start the journey home
