

My Eyes

Life of Agony

A little older, little wiser
With every breath I learn just a little more
And with all I've seen
I've finally made up my mind Enough of, of this world
Enough blood in these eyes
I'm so, so, so sick of this life It's about time being I realized
Release this hate from inside
Enough blood in my eyes Call it what, you can will Call it suicide
Disregard how you feel
I'm just freeing my mind
Clench my teeth as I sleep
So, so, so sick of this life, yea
Cannot take, cannot fake
Can't shake this blood from these eyes All I have and all I will be Nevertheless I'll live for all eternity
'Cause you can erase my words
Can't erase my mind You can't wipe out my thoughts
Can't shake this blood from my eyes
So, so, so, so don't even try
Just give me one good reason to live
I'll give you three to die
Let's leave this world behind Blood from these eyes
