Stephen

Senses Fail

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbyeNovember 10th, a cold dark night
Oh, you could feel that something wasn't right
That night many hearts did cry

When we learned we had to say goodbyeAll embraced under one common song The body is dead but life lives onGoodbye Steven, goodbye you friend

> You were so young, you were so young Goodbye Steven, goodbye you friend

You were so, so youngThe cars lined the streets, as it was coming to an end The sun shined so brightly, the day we buried our friendAll embraced under one common song The body is dead but life lives onGoodbye Steven, goodbye you friend

> You were so young, you were so young Goodbye Steven, goodbye you friend

You were so young, you were so youngLosing in the fall, lost innocence came down An 18 year old boy was buried in the ground

A family's broken hearts, a friend's streaming tears

The light lost in death, the living's growing fearsOf eternal darkness or spiritual light

To come with terms with death on the darkest night

A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend

A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end, never endA brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend

A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end

A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend

A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end

A brother lost a brother, a friend lost a friend

A mother lost a son but Steven's soul will never end[Incomprehensible]

When the others say goodbye
