

Glistening

Orange 9mm

Forget blindfolded deathbed promises
You've got to dig too deep to ever find conviction
Forget blindfolded deathbed promises It ain't easy to find the words
It ain't easy to find the words to slam the nails down Commit yourself, commit yourself get down
Hollow means there's nothing to hold it up
The substance loses definition
They fill these heads with thoughts to recite not to vision So it ain't easy to find the words
It ain't easy to find the words to slam the nails down
