

Hey There

Old Avenue

Hey there Amy, can you tell, what I did to get here?
I think you oughta know
Hey there Sara, do you swear, that you really don't care?
I think you really do

Â

It's the birds, in the trees
I can almost hear them singin'
It's the way, that we meet, in a parking lot outside
The hurt that we give and the way that we give it
Who do you know? I think you oughta know

I won't be let down

Â

Well hey there Maggie, can you tell, that it didn't go well?
I think you oughta know
Well hey there Sara, do you swear, that you really don't care?
I think you really do

Â

It's the birds, in the trees
I can almost hear them singin'
It's the way, that we meet, in a parking lot outside
The hurt that we give and the way that we give it
Who do you know? I think you oughta know

I won't be let down

Â

Well it don't mean anything when i say to you
And we were there, holding up the wings
Who do you believe in when you're screaming out my name?
Thinking about, remembering you... alright

Â

I think you oughta know
I think you oughta know

Â

It's the birds, in the trees
I can almost hear them singin'
It's the way, that we meet, in a parking lot outside
The hurt that we give and the way that we give it
Who do you know? I think you oughta know

I won't be let down

I won't be let down

I won't be let down
