The Jude

Everybody says hey boy we love you
Everyone I want pushes me away
I keep asking the same old tired questions
Hoping that the answers will somehow change Why oh why isn't anybody listening
I couldn't cry if I knew what I was missing
No one nowhere waiting on the world
I know I know Everybody seems to think I'm crazy
Get me to a doctor I need a break
Everybody seems to think I'm lazy
Help me please my head's not on too straight Why oh why isn't anybody listening
I wouldn't mind, mind
You are the one
Take me to the world where I can find you
I can find you
I can find you
I can't find
