Walking On The Water

Motorpsycho

Walking on the water
I saw shadows you'd caressed filling me with urgency you promised me the best But you lied, yes you lied now I can never trust that feeling
'cause you lied to me In glimpses it reveals itself beyond me every time you said you'd show me, lead me there turn water into wine
But you lied.....etc
I see myself as you do now I'd laugh too if I could once again the joke's on me like I somehow knew it would 'cause you lied.....etc
Walking on the water I saw shadows you'd caressed....
