

World So Cold

12 Stones

It starts with pain.. fallowed by hate.
Fueled by the endless questions..no one can awnser.
A stain covers your heart..and tears you apart just like a sleeping cancer.

I dont believe men are born to be good.
I dont believe the world can be saved.
How did you get here and when did it start.. an inocent child with a thorn in his heart.

(chorus)

What kind of world do we live in? Where love is divided by hate.
Losing control of our feeling.. we must all be dreaming this life away.
In a world so cold.

Are you sane.. wheres the shame?
A moment of time passes by.. you can not rewind.
Whos to blame.. and when did it start?
Is there a cure for your sickness.. have you no heart?

I dont believe men are born to be good.
I dont believe the world can be saved.
How did you get here and when did it start.. an inocent child with a thorn in his heart.

What kind of world do we live in? Where love is divided by hate.
Losing control of our feeling.. we're dreaming this life away.
What kind of world do we live in? Where love is divided by hate.
Selling our soul for a reason.. we all must be dreaming this life away.
In a world so cold.

Theres a sickness in side you that wants to escape.

Its a feeling you get when you cant find your way.

So how many times just you fall to your knees?
Never.. never.. never.. never.. never do this again.

It starts with pain.. fallowed by hate.

I dont believe men are born to be good.
I dont believe the world can be saved.
