Tell Me

Charmaine

Are you coming?
Are you gone?
Are you searching?
Are you found?
Are you reaching for the stars,
Just to find that you are lost?Just tell me
I will be all that you need me to be
Just tell me
I will be all that you couldn't be, (no)Are you faceless?
Hollow?
And the pain now overflows...
Are you running,
and who from?
Are you afraid of what you've become?Just tell me
I will be all that you need me to be
Just tell me
I will be all that you couldn't be, (no)I'll give you something to believe in something to believe in now
I'll give you something to believe in something to believe in nowJust tell me
I will be all that you need me to be
Just tell me
I will be all that you couldn't be, (no)
