just pretend

Mike Gubisch

While I held you with our undry eyes
Happy years pass by, it's okay to cryAfter all in the end
Just pretendWell, it's sticks and stones and broken homes
That taught us how to smileAfter all in the end
Just pretendThere's a name that plays in my head like a song
All day long, she's with me every dayAfter all in the end
Just pretendEveryone needs
Everyone needs
Everyone needsIf the sun can shine, you'll be just fine
Look into your mind where you're freeAfter all in the end
Just pretend'Cause we hurt each other once before
Let's not do that againAfter all in the end
Just pretendAnd a voice so familiar
Wakes me up in the middle
She thinks, I'm having a bad dreamAfter all in the end
Just pretendEveryone needs
Everyone needs
Everyone needsAfter all, it's the end
