

Mellow Tone

Carbon Leaf

You're on my fingers, you're on my paper
We're close but far, here we are, there you are You're on my weak heart, my heart is tissue
My heart's a scar, here we are, there you are You're mellow tone, the stepping stone
To whittle away to get me home
I travel far to bed the floor
I've come a long way, I've come to miss
Your mellow tone, mellow tone
Mellow tone, mellow tone Where now to begin, this deadened cove, oh
To feel your warm skin
Beneath your clothes, beneath your clothes
Dilate me in your pool, erase my memory start anew
Hide where no one knows
Beneath your clothes, beneath your clothes The zenith hum, the perfect strum
I have become completely numb
Tone of your heartbeat, tone of your breathing
Tone of your fingertips, I'm receiving mellow tone
Mellow tone, mellow tone, mellow tone The zenith hum, the perfect strum
I have become completely numb
Tone of your heartbeat, tone of your breathing
Tone of your fingertips, I'm receiving mellow tone Mellow tone, mellow tone, mellow tone
Mellow tone, mellow tone, mellow tone
