Heartbeat

Paris Hilton

I was lonely, only I didn't know it
I was so sad, only I didn't show it
You came like the sun breaking through the clouds
And I found you're what I couldn't live withoutIn you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I needYou know I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh, but baby since we've been kissin'
Oh, I can feel the other half from the heartbeat
It's so sweet lying here with youYou'll look at me and I see my reflection
You understand who I am needs protection
The way you latch to me, the way you take my hand
And I follow you to fall in myselfIn you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I needYou know I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh, but baby since we've been kissin'
Oh, I can feel the other half from the heartbeat
It's so sweet lying here with youMy heart beats like a drum when I hear you comeYou came like the sun breaking through the clouds
And I found you're what I couldn't live withoutIn you I feel the other half of my heartbeat
I'm complete
In you I hear the other half of my heartbeat
That's all I needYou know I didn't know what I was missin'
Oh, but baby since we've been kissin'
Oh, I can feel the other half from the heartbeat
It's so sweet lying here with you
