Charon

Keaton Henson

And It seems as though I'm on my own And time transcends, oh!

And it seems I speak Like waters leak And I'm losing friends, oh!

And there'll be coins on my eyes There'll be coins on my eyes To pay Charon Before I let you near my son

And I don't feel well Oh, couldn't you tell, From the way I touch my face?

> My thoughts are low And I cannot grow In this small space, oh!

But there'll be coins on my eyes There'll be coins on my eyes To pay Charon, Before I let you near my son

> And I ain't no, And I ain't no, And I ain't no Hercules I ain't no Hercules
