

Anna Lee

I Am the Avalanche

Everyone I know
All wrapping six-foot rope
Around their tired throats
And never growing old
Still trying to stay afloat Anna Lee
You never said to me
That you felt that way
Nothing can bring you back
You love your fucked up friends
Even more 'cause they don't pretend
To have it figured out
You kiss the cold wet ground
You're honesty scares me to death Anna Lee
You never said to me
That you felt that way
Nothing can bring you back I didn't mean to leave you here
But that was years ago and
Nothing can bring you back Anna Lee
You never said to me
That you felt that way
Nothing can bring you back
Anna Lee (I never meant leave you)
You never said to me (But that was years ago and)
That you felt that way
Nothing can bring you back
Anna Lee
