

Plunger

umphrey`s mcgee

Gravely now we stare at indecision
Climbing stairs for sale is insufficient
Reading off the wall is too contagious
We're capable of more, is that suspicious?
Careful where you rest unspinning
Don't be fooled by youth
And after all the stains have settled
There's nowhere you're from
Stairs are always left with limits
Won't there be a roof?
And as for all the change in schedule
Compared to hear who won
And maybe when you find it all again
(And you will)
Nothing's stopping, not ever here or there
And you rarely ever find it when you need
(You're still lookin')
Someday, sometime, someone, somewhere
