

Love Is Dead

Mad Sin

I'm burning the polaroids, but memory sticks
I felt for you in fact I burned my prick
Wish I could spend a last night between your legs
Listen, I sit and wonder who's having love with you now
Behind closed eyes, my private horrorshow
The king of fools is wearing the crown
And the sea of heartbreak is where I drown

And love is dead
It's a tragedy
Yeah love is dead
What an evil thief
She stole my heart with no regrets
Now love is dead

So many asses around me, but I only want yours
My dick is starving 'cause my nights are a bore
Hello again, here comes another lone day
The naked truth is here to stay

And love is dead
It's a tragedy
Yeah love is dead
What an evil thief
She stole my heart with no regrets
Now love is dead

("Don't you dare touch me! Stand back!")

And love is dead
It's a tragedy
Yeah love is dead
What an evil thief
She stole my heart with no regrets
Now love is dead
Shut up and rot
Your love is dead
I'm gonna chop up the slut
That stole my heart with no regrets
You stole my fuckin' heart with no regrets
