Deep In the Dark

Laura Branigan

Check it out, JoeI'll tell you a secret
If you know where to keep it and you promise not to tell
Got a tale or two
About a girl that you could have sworn you knew so wellIt was years ago
Though it sounds like yesterday
You came on strong
And she gave it all awayHe had an angel's face
A fighter's grace and an ace hidden up his sleeve
But never mind 'cause love is blind
And she needed to believeHis touch could fill
He held her safe from harm
If looks could kill
She'd have died there in his armsDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
He told her every single lie
He swore, he'd never told anyone beforeCheck it out, JoeNow you wake up in the dead of night
And reach out to touch her hair
But the bed is empty, turn on the light
And she's not even thereThen a note she wrote
You read that thing and weep
'Cause if you love someone
And never know what runs so deepDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
She told you every single lie
She swore, she'd never heard beforeDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
She told you every single lie
She swore, she'd never heard beforeTwo three fourCheck it out, JoeDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
She told you every single lie
She swore, she'd never heard beforeTwo three fourDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
She told you every single lie
She swore, she'd never told anyone beforeDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
She told you every single lie
She swore, she'd never heard beforeDeep in the dark
The thunder in her heart
