

Defend With Violence

Throwdown

Defend with violence, the truth and what is right
Defend with violence, our honor, our way of life
When silence is the native tongue of cowards
And reason is the language you reject
Confronted, the high road has collapsed
Confronted, this is the only resolve that I have left, go!
Defend with violence, the truth and what is right
Defend with violence, our honor, our way of life
When silence is the native tongue of cowards
And reason is the language you reject
Confronted, the high road has collapsed at last
Confronted, this is the only resolve that I have left
Go!
Defend... Defend with violence, the truth and what is right
Defend... Defend with violence, do what I must do to survive
