

Personal Best

Small Black

Though we like to pretend the dance is choreographed there looms the pattern more random every day seen through a pane of glass but clearly magnified we sit and focus
and hone in on the worst yet I
don't see us running out of time but its true
we should've learned enough to chalk it up as a loss
our day is coming quick we put it off of course in a line of thinking we had doubted from the start the only cost of which would be our bullshit time
still see us lying in the dark fixing, just staring at the void making a list
setting demands
reminds me why
I might have cared
she said
"come take your birds and fly
go find the afterlife go out and focus
hone in on the void
I see you running out of time
I see you running out of time
just see you and me
just see you
running
just see you and me
running out of time
just see you and me

lying in the dark
lying in the dark
