I Wanna Die

Miranda Lambert

You know it's so complicated, first you love then you hate it
Someone's laughin', someone's cryin', someone livin', someone's dyin'
Somebody always loses an' we still play the game
An' the fire will always burn you an' we still light the flame
Let's make it up, baby 'cause I ain't gonna fight
If you're the death of me, darlin', I wanna die
You always say that you love me an' there is no one above me
Never givin', always takin', never bendin', always breakin'
I know you ain't a liar but you don't tell the truth
An' you're walkin' on a wire wearin' someone else's shoes
If you're handin' out misery, I'll be the first in line
If you're the death of me, darlin', I wanna die
Tear it up, break it down
Put my heart on your sleeve an' wear it all over town
I know you're a player but you don't play by the rules
An' I'm just another in a long line of fools
Yeah, it's so complicated, I love then I hate it
I'm laughin', you're cryin', you're livin', I'm dyin'

Somebody always loses an' we still play the game
Yeah, the fire will always burn you an' we still light the flame
Let's make it up, baby 'cause I ain't gonna fight
If you're the death of me, darlin', I wanna die
Yeah, tear it up, break it down
Put my heart on your sleeve an' wear it all over town
I know you're a player but you don't play by the rules
An' I'm just another in a long line of fools
Yeah, it's so complicated, I love then I hate it
I'm laughin', you're cryin', I'm livin', you're dyin'
I know you ain't a liar but you don't tell the truth
Hey, you're walkin' on a wire wearin' someone else's shoes
You're handin' out misery, I'll be the first in line
If you're the death of me, darlin', I wanna die
I wanna die
Tear it up, tear it up
