

Might Returns

Damnation

[lyrics: Les]Dark edifice shrouded in the thick mist
Walls covered with shadow bathed in the purple of the sun
Master's throne wrapped in the attire of the ancient lords
Might returned to the old bewitched gates
 Standing on the hill of truth
 I reach out towards the abyss
 Wind tousles my body
 I feel the ancient power
Wild sea waves strike with crash against the walls
 Power of nature unveils its mighty face
Let us be carried away by the force of element
 Flesh, blood, lasting and death
 Might returns
 False symbols burn
 Fire whirl devours
 What the weak worshipped
 In the times of darkness and deceit so hope this will help you a bit nice site keep on going!
