

Until We Die (Post-Hardcore.RU)

Escape the Fate

Time lifts towards the sky like the end of days
A small piece of sanity is all that remains its
On my brain On the break of madness I remember all I love
Take away the fear from this
I wont give it up
Wont give it up We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we die
We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we die Just like an animal
Locked inside a cage
I'm pushing back in forth
Waiting with pace
I cant escape We are the warriors
Raising from the grave
I will fight until nothing remains
Nothing remains We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we die
We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we
Battle till we die Don't tell I wont succeed
It lights the fire under me
Don't tell me I wont succeed
It light the fire
The fire under me We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we die
We are not alone we are searching for the truth
And well will always fight this battle till we
Battle till we die! Battle till we die!
