Stephen Fretwell

There must be something in the water tonight.

Little girl you just don't feel right.

Stand and deliver, get rid of that shiver.

Don't you think I feel the cold too?

Hey, hey,

Hey.

Hey, don't be so hard on yourself.

Lay,

Lay,

Lay in the grass in the field.

There must be something in the water tonight.

Little girl you just don't sound right.

You could write me a letter if it makes you feel any better.

Run along now, why don't you go do it tonight.

Hey, hey,

Hey.

Hey, don't be so hard on yourself.

Lay,

Lay,

Lay in the grass in the field.

There must be something in the water tonight.

Little girl you just don't feel right.
