

Empty Hearts

As I Lay Dying

I've watched them build
Upon these empty hearts False hopes of lossless paradise
Gathering
False hopes of lossless paradise
Gathering together The dead hearts beat as one
Stillborn comfort feeding lies Through answers [Incomprehensible]
Divided between a dissolute self
And the sorrow of sincere devotion, devotion What is it that you find peace in now?
Where is your hope in this dark night?
What is it that you find peace in now?
Where is your hope in this dark night?
