Feelin' Brave

Blue Sky Riders

Tonight's the kind of night where anything goes
What's gonna happen here nobody knows
Was a time I'd have been frightened out of my mind
But it's so alright
Alright
Alright
I'm feelin brave tonight
Just like an arrow
Pulled back in a bow
This is my moment
And I'm dying to go
There's no turning back
When I finally take flight
And it's alright
Alright
Alright
I'm feelin brave tonight
Chorus:
If I said playing it safe was ever enough
Then I was a liar
'Cause at the end of the day
Don't we all want a love
That sets the whole world on fire
Call me crazy
You're probably right
But I'm feelin' brave
TonightWhen I woke up today
I won't let nothin' or no one stand in my way
A revelation I can't deny
But it's alright
Alright
I'm feeling brave
Chorus:
If I said playing it safe was ever enough
Then I was a liar
'Cause at the end of the day
Don't we all want a love
That sets the whole world on fire
Call me crazy

You're probably right
But I'm feelin' brave
Tonight
Chorus:
If I said playing it safe was ever enough
Then I was a liar
'Cause at the end of the day
That sets the whole world on fire
Call me crazy
That's the thing about maybe
It means that I might
And I'm feelin' brave
Tonight
