I'll Be Fine

Robinson

Working hard, playing harder
Everything under the sun
Time I waste is time well-spent
Do my best to have a little funBut where could I go from here
That's better than where I am?
Is there a line to draw
And cross it in the sand?So I'll just say
So I'll just say
So I'll just say
I'll be fineYears go by
Clouded by lies, lies I thought were true
Am I sick, am I well?
It's too difficult to tell anymoreBut where could I go from here
That's better than where I am?
Is there a line to draw
And cross it in the sand?So I'll just say
So I'll just say
So I'll just say
I'll be fineI just need some understanding
Something more to carry me through
What can I do?
What can I do?So I'll just say
So I'll just say
So I'll just say
So I'll just say
So I'll just say
I'll be fine
I'll be fine
I'll be fine
