Calling From the Wild

Tarja

See the world as one
Find what grows of stone
Roam our circle, come home.

On my ocean, are you sadowing me?
Breaking surface to connect again
For a moment, I can feel what you feel
So clear, and Iâ€™m with you again.

In my air, I feel you covering me
Out of trust, you gave me the power to them
And if only they could see what you see
Wind and love never hide
Into the sky.

One more
Stand for Freedom

Calling from the wild side
For life
Reason

Thereâ€™s no life, without a dream
No power strong enough to hold it back
In a never ending stream
See the world as one
Listen to the call and stand forâ€¦
One more,
One more,
One more.

From my tres I know youâ€™re following me
Through the wid I hear you speaking of love
And a message that I want to believe
That we forgot and now Iâ€™m with you again
Wind and love never hide
Into the sky.

One more,

One more,
Thereâ€™s no life, without a dream
No power strong enough to hold it back
In a never ending stream
See the world as one
Listen to the call and stand forâ€¦
One more,
One more,
One more.
