

Broken

Tommy Brandt

Broken Tommy Brandt
Like a wild stallion that bust through the gate
Kicking and stomping everything in his way
Out of control
I was that man
So much for fences
They werenâ€™t gonna hold me
I dealt with the pain
Out ran the misery
So far from the truth that lied within
Then He saved me
I was down on my knees and he held me when I cried out please
He had mercy on even a sinner like me
And Iâ€™m thankful for my mommaâ€™s prayers
She prayed hard all through the years
Over and over again
Thank god Iâ€™m broken
You might be lost somewhere out there
Alone and afraid, donâ€™t be scared
Heâ€™s right there beside you, understand
We all have our moments
Your momentâ€™s at hand
Just bow your head and talk to him
Open your heart and let him in â€˜Cause he saved me,
I was down on my knees and he held me when I cried out please
He had mercy on even a sinner like me
And Iâ€™m thankful for my mommaâ€™s prayers
She prayed hard all through the years
Over and over again
Thank god Iâ€™m broken
And he saved me, I was down on my knees and he held me when I cried out please
He had mercy on even a sinner like me
Now Iâ€™m thankful for my mommaâ€™s prayers
She prayed hard all through the years
Over and over again
Thank god Iâ€™m broken
Thank god Iâ€™m broken
Thank god Iâ€™m broken
