

Honesty

Robert Kramer

You tell me all of your secrets, all of your hopes and dreams.
You tell me everything's fine, but something's not what it seems
I hear your words, but no Sincerity
No Clarity You make it all sound like if nothing if not sincere You've got to go a long way around to just get it clear
I hear your words but no Sincerity
No Honesty Dreams can't be REALITY Without Honesty You tell me all the right words but only the words I hear There's something in the words that you say that don't reach my ears I hear your words but no Sincerity
No Honesty Honesty, Honesty, Honesty, Honesty I hear your words but no Sincerity
No Clarity You make it all sound like nothing if not sincere
You've got to go a long way around to just get it clear
I hear your words but no Sincerity
No Honesty Honesty, Honesty, Honesty, Honesty
