On Your Side

Luna Halo

I'm praying for the end of day
And at your window I will wait
To watch you sleeping through the night, the nightAnd if I held you, would you break?
Am I the victim of my ways?
But I can't run away this timeSo give me a reason for me to surrender
And drop my defenses, and I'm on your side
And tell me your secrets 'cause I will believe them
For you I will lay down my will to fight
And I'm on your sideThere's no more battles to be won
My lines have all been overcome
My red has turned to white, to whiteIs this weakness in your eyes
Telling me that we're allies?
There's nothing left to hideSo give me a reason for me to surrender
And drop my defenses, and I'm on your side
And tell me your secrets 'cause I will believe them
For you I will lay down my will to fight
And I'm on your sideI am on your side
