

Rock and a Hard Place

Supreme Beings Of Leisure

They'll never understand
How hard it is to be you
An endless game
You always lose Your fate is sealed
No future revealed
Pity poor, pity poor you When your life has been a riddle
And your trapped in the middle of
A rock and a hard place You're hard as nails
You're cold as ice
You've nothing to lose
You roll the dice
They'll never understand
No, no, never understand The only face you show
Is programmed to deceive
Can't wear your heart
Upon your sleeve Your fate is sealed
No future revealed
Pity poor, pity poor you When your life has been a riddle
And your trapped in the middle of
A rock and a hard place When your life has been a riddle
And your trapped in the middle of
A rock and a hard place You're hard as nails
You're cold as ice
You've nothing to lose
You roll the dice
They'll never understand
You know, they'll never understand Stuck in a hard place
