

Army of Lions

Matthew Good

Go on now come alive nothing in here is true nothing but the hole they've measured out for you if you've tried to sing along but never known the tune in your heart come realize you've got an army of lions and all the claws they bring got an army of lions to rule everything Go on now come to life got nothing left to lose nothing but the hole punched clean and ever through that never sings along, that's never been in tune
got an army of lions
