Shells (Hannes Fischer Remix)

Laurel

Make me feel again
The sea is cold, my only friend
I don't want to be alone
On the shells, on the shoreSkin and bones, we've lost ourselves
Holding onto all we felt
You pushed me out to survive
I fell in love just in timeBut does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking meStaring into the dark
Scared to go back to the start
I'll hurt and you will heal
Nothingness is all I feelBut does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking meI walk into the wind
The sea's waves against my skin
Empty hand and tired eyes
Leave me here. I'll be fineBut does she have what you want?
Does she love how I love?
Is she everything you need?Colder you are, making
Me fall. I am breaking
Love hurts when it's all you need
And you're breaking meAnd you're breaking me
And you're breaking me
