

Mysteries

Beth Gibbons & Rustin Man

God knows how I adore life
When the wind turns on the shore, lies another day
I cannot ask for more When the time bell blows my heart
And I have scored a better day
Well nobody made this war of mine And the moments that I enjoy
A place of love and mystery
I'll be there anytime Oh, mysteries of love
Where war is no more
I'll be there anytime When the time bell blows my heart
And I have scored a better day
Well nobody made this war of mine And the moments that I enjoy
A place of love and mystery
I'll be there anytime Mysteries of love
Where war is no more
I'll be there anytime
