

The Dive (2003 Digital Remaster)

Culture Club

When I wake up feeling victimized
There is nothing
That can stop my eyes
From crying When you put the pressure
Down on me
Cause I don't quite fit
Your imagery
I'm trying Baby I'm no superman [Chorus:]
Eyes like a deep blue sea
To dive in
Love that you give to me
We're surviving
Surviving
When love is gone
I can't carry on When you know that love
Is on my mind
It's a perfect chance
To be unkind
You do it Being sly you take a chance
On crime
But the master has a new design
On loving, living
Out and in the enemy [Chorus] Eyes that open wide
Do you do
Love you give the child
Do you do
Why do you do that to me? When I wake up feeling victimized
There is nothing
That can stop my eyes
From crying When you put the pressure
Down on me
Cause I don't quite fit
Your imagery
I'm trying I'm no superman [Chorus]
