

I'll Get Over It (Miss Elaineous)

Everyday Sunday

She came over last night and said she wanted to talk but i didnt think she seemed her self she wore my favorite blue shirt and tonight i knew i didnt want to be with any one else

And then the next ten minutes of my life were a blur and i couldnt believe what she said,she said she thought that we might be better off friends i said i thought i'd be better off dead.

knees are shaking and these palms are sweating while this heart is breaking can this be ordinary love

whoa whoa
just close your eyes it will all be over soon now im sitting here trying all the right words to say but im still chocking on the fumes form when she drove away.

Lyrics submitted by Keria Nicole.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>