Emergin' to the right to the left, see three, hallucinatin'
Stoned ain't got a lick but a bra protection on my phone
Therefore that'll make it this that much easier
For anybody with a computer that got the right data information Software to clone, clone it off the streets how

 Let's hit the house party, let's hit the L.I.Q.
 Pull up sideways, doin' about a buck-fiftyOn the dope track where the bass heads be comin' through
 I see more killings and more hop than the kangaroo
 My baby's momma she sick, she on that glass dick
 Be crawlin' all on the rug lookin' for that shitHogan High School prom queen right?
 On her hands and knees pickin' up lint and anything that's white
 That's how you can tell that a dope fiend's gone psycho
 When they get to hah lookin' all out the curtains with they high beamsOn the corner, be that dice game unfoldin'
 (What happened?)
 One of my dudes, seriously, he rollin'
 Then a couple of fools pull up and went for theirs a-course
 With intentions of splittin' my wig but it wound up gettin' reversedI left they kite flyin', down for the grind,
