Nerve

HEADSTONES

You wait for me to break the ice
Then you ask me, demandin' my advice
Just to cut me off, don't give a shit
You won't give a little bit
What can I do just to make you fuckin' stop?You want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn14th floor you're hangin'
You don't need me to finish that thoughtYou keep diggin' for a little more control
What ever happened to that little mole
That's dancin' in your brain
Tellin' you I haven't changed
What can I do just to make you fuckin' stop?You want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turnYou keep callin'
Can't seem to get enough
Of my attention, my intentions
Just aren't good enough, heyYou keep callin'
Can't seem to get enough
Of my attention, my intentions
Just aren't good enough for youYou want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turn
And you want me to change but you never turnNever turn, never turn
You, you, you
Never turn, never turn
You, you, youNever turn, never turn
You, you, you
Never turnWant me to change but you never turn
Want me to change but you never turn
You want me to change but you never turn
You want me to change but you never turn
You, you want me to change but you never turn
