She's Got You

Cosmo Jarvis

I don't care what you do
She says she's in love with you
But I know
The devil wears a thousand faces
So what you telling me?
That you found love truly
But let go
Or you'll forget the basics
Like who's your friends you know
The ones you always told you trusted
But you're a double agent
Yes everybody tries, to run to perfect lives
But you've changed and boy I cannot take itMinute by minute
A love sweet love
I don't get why you haven't had enough
Second by second
It wears you away and you're goneWhen will you just learn she's got you-u
Wrapped round her little finger-r-r?
Wrapped round her little finger-r-rWe were brothers and
And there were no others, man
And I told you that all of this would happen
Just look what you did
Now you're a weird kid
And those girlies aren't good until you have one
Well I'm not jealous of you
I'm just a fella who remembers
People you grew up
She's gunna eat your soul, leave you with a hole
And each feeling no-one can fill it upMinute by minute
A love sweet love
I don't get why you haven't had enough
Second by second
I edge you away and you're goneWhen will you just learn she's got you-u
Wrapped round her little finger-r-r?
Wrapped round her little finger-r-rIt's a thing that she's evil and that she will blow you away
And that she will steal everything that your meant to say
You're still around but you're not who you were born
So why won't you sit and let reality dawnWhen will you just learn she's got you-u
Wrapped round her little finger-r-r?
