The Joneses

Interdimensional Vortex League

Keeping up with the Joneses, keeps you keeping out
As long as you have the will to get along
And what you do for you is never wrong
So don't you worry, don't you worryAnd I was never keen enough
As long as this time is still ticking on the clock
But when your pretty face won't be enough
Then I won't you want you won't to want toYou're wearing your corduroys and your diamond tooth
But you couldn't relate to the girl with the silver spoon
The lies that you're telling me are always true
It's true, you made a fool of me for believing youSo keeping up with the Joneses, keeps me hanging on
As long as I have the will to get along
And what I do for you is always wrong
But don't you worry, don't you worry'Cause I would never give it up
As long as this time's still ticking on the clock
But when your pretty face won't be enough
Now won't you want to won't you want toI love you the most when you are fast asleep
And whatever I do for you I'm still the creep
I realize that I'm not good enough
It's tough for sensitive men in a world that don't give a fuckSo keeping up with the Joneses, keeps me hanging on
As long as I have the will to get along
And what you do for you is never wrong
But don't you worry, don't you worry'Cause you would never give it up
As long as the time's still ticking on the clock
But when your pretty face won't be enough
Then I won't you want to won't you want toNow even your corduroys are faded through
And when you're walking away
Well, I think it's a better view the lies that you tell yourself
Are always true, so true
And you keep on talking till your face is blueKeeping up with the Joneses, Keeps you hanging on
As long as you have the will to get along
And what you do for you is never wrong
So don't you worry, don't you worryAnd I would never give it up
As long as this time's still ticking on the clock
But when your pretty face won't be enough
Now won't you, want you, won't you, want you
Don't you, want you, don't you, want to
